

2023 AIP CAREER & SALARY REPORT HIGHLIGHTS

Do you have any of the following packaging-related degrees?

- 27% of the respondents have a Diploma in Packaging Technology, 11% have a Certificate in Packaging, 10% have completed the Master of Food & Packaging Innovation, and 10% the Fundamentals of Packaging Technology.

DIPLOMA IN PACKAGING TECHNOLOGY

27%

CERTIFICATE IN PACKAGING

11%

MASTER OF FOOD & PACKAGING INNOVATION

10%

FUNDAMENTALS OF PACKAGING TECHNOLOGY

10%

Experience

- 41% of the total respondents have more than 20 year's experience in the packaging industry.
- This is an indication of longevity and stable career pathways within the industry.

More than 20 years

41%

6 to 10 years

14%

3 to 5 years

9%

What is your highest level of education?

- 51% of the total respondents have a Graduate Degree and 26% have an Undergraduate Degree.
- This is a continued indication that the industry is highly educated with degree level qualifications.

GRADUATE DEGREE

51%

UNDERGRADUATE DEGREE

26%

Job Function

- 30% of the total respondents indicated that they work in Packaging Technology/Design.
- This was followed by Sales & Business Development at 17.0%, and then 16.0% in Research & Development.

30% Packaging Technology/ Design

17.00% Sales & Business Development

16.00% Research & Development

Satisfaction with Job Security

- 46% of the total respondents feel very secure with their job, while 29% are 'somewhat secure'.

I feel very secure

46%

I feel somewhat secure

29%

Industry/Products

- 46% of the total respondents work in Food followed by 12% in packaging materials.
- 10% indicated that they work in the beverage industry.

46% FOOD

12% PACKAGING MATERIALS

10% BEVERAGE

The full 2023 Salary Survey Report is available to AIP Members & respondents who undertook the survey.

In partnership with

2023 AIP CAREER & SALARY REPORT HIGHLIGHTS

- 41% of the total respondents have more than 20 year's experience in the packaging industry. This is an indication of longevity and stable career pathways within the industry.
- 51% of the total respondents have a Graduate Degree and 26% have an Undergraduate Degree. This is a continued indication that the industry is highly educated with degree level qualifications.
- 27% of the respondents have a Diploma in Packaging Technology, 11% have a Certificate in Packaging, 10% have completed the Master of Food & Packaging Innovation, and 10% the Fundamentals of Packaging Technology.
- 46% of the total respondents work in Food followed by 12% in packaging materials. 10% indicated that they work in the Beverage industry.
- 30% of the total respondents indicated that they work in Packaging Technology/Design. This was followed by Sales & Business Development at 17.0%, and then 16.0% in Research & Development
- 46% of the total respondents feel very secure with their job, while 29% are 'somewhat secure'.

The full 2023 Salary Survey Report is available to AIP Members & respondents who undertook the survey.

In partnership with

