POSITION VACANT PACKAGING DEVELOPMENT TECHNOLOGIST

- Varied, exciting Packaging development role
- Play an important role in Fonterra's growth strategy
- Mount Waverley location

THE BUSINESS UNIT
Fonterra is a global leader in dairy nutrition, the preferred supplier of dairy ingredients to many of the world's leading food companies. Our Australian business is one of our largest and operates 10 manufacturing sites with 2,000 employees providing Australians the great-tasting dairy brands they know and love.

THE ROLE
Based in our Fonterra Australia Head Office in Mount Waverley, Melbourne, this role reports through to the Product Applications Manager (Yoghurt & Dairy Desserts). In this role you will focus on delivering packaging technology solutions for new product development, cost optimization and business support projects and activities. Given the breadth and variety of Fonterra's product range you will be expected to apply your NPD experience to our unique challenges.

As a Packaging Development Technologist you will be expected to demonstrate both technical and individual leadership competencies and your responsibilities will include:

- Taking a selected concept right through to launch
- Providing packaging expertise on a wide range of NPD & Cost optimisation projects
- Identifying opportunities for packaging, innovation and improvement
- Working closely with other functional groups such as procurement, marketing, manufacturing, other packaging groups in NZ, as well as 3rd party suppliers.
- Supporting the resolution of operational issues relating to packaging.

Please note there will be travel between production sites for 2-3 days at a time 2-3 times a month, with the possibility of some international travel as well.

SKILLS AND EXPERIENCE
To be successful in this role you will have:

- Strong packaging management experience from a Dairy or other FMCG environment.
- Previous project management experience.
- Previous knowledge of cross functional NPD and re-engineering projects.
- Understanding of the NPD process of concept through to commercialisation.
- Outstanding relationship management, problem solving and communication skills
- An energetic and enthusiastic attitude.

This is a fantastic opportunity to gain breadth and depth of packaging experience in a varied product environment with Fonterra.
